US Army
Corps of Engineers

Enterprise Asset Management SubCoP

- As-Is Collaboration Environment
  - Who is involved?
    - SMEs
    - Leadership
  - What is the procedure?
    - Hierarchy structure

US Army
Corps of Engineers

Enterprise Asset Management SubCoP

- To-Be Collaboration Environment
  - What we can improve?
    - SME Contact List
    - Logistics Related PDTs
    - Voluntary Skills Register
  - Who will be involved?
    - All stakeholders who wish to participate
  - What will be expected business value?
    - Efficiency
    - Continuity
    - Shared Knowledge

US Army
Corps of Engineers

Enterprise Asset Management SubCoP

- Knowledge Management
  - Why share knowledge?
    - Become a learning organization
    - Attrition/Maintain technical expertise
  - Who needs to share?
    - Voluntary participants who wish to share lessons learned

US Army
Corps of Engineers

Enterprise Asset Management SubCoP

- Next Steps
  - Sub-CoPs established
    - Supply/Property
      - Sub-CoP Leaders – Ralph Young, Vicksburg and Amos Cowan, Huntsville
    - Maintenance
      - Sub-CoP Leaders – Ernest Pitts, Jr., New Orleans and John Christensen, Seattle
  - Establish group goals/targets
    - Virtual meetings (EKO, email, etc.)
    - Start up with existing participants
    - Energize the log community to participate
    - Timeline for Groove
    - Interface with Business Process PDTs
    - Interface with other CoP/Sub-CoPs

US Army
Corps of Engineers

SUB-CoP

Questions?